MRS. BENJAMIN RUSSELL BRYANT
Formerly Miss Janice Faye Doss

Wed In Evening Ceremony

The marriage of Miss Janice Faye Doss to Benjamin Russell Bryant took place Saturday evening at 7 o'clock in Bible Baptist Church in Appomattox.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas O. Doss and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel C. Bryant, all of Appomattox.

The Rev. Earnie W. Lucas, pastor of the church, officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride was escorted and given in marriage by her father.

The bride wore a gown of silk organza and traced Chantilly lace. Her tiered veil of illusion was attached to a crown of pearlized orange blossoms and leaves. She carried a white Bible topped with a white bridal orchid and showered with star-burst Pom Poms.

Mrs. David Wells, sister of the bridegroom, was matron of honor and Miss Patricia Werking, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor.

Attendants were Mrs. Allen Mayberry, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Dale Doss, cousin of the bride. Patricia Doss, sister of the bride and Brenda Bryant, sister of the bridegroom, were junior bridesmaids.

The maid and matron of honor wore Princess style gowns of mint green satin trimmed with lace. The bridesmaids' gowns were the same as those of the maid and matron of honor. All wore matching crowns of mint green satin and a headpiece of veiling in matching tones.

They carried yellow long-stemmed mums with matching ribbons.

Sherri Doss, sister of the bride, was flower girl and Tony Wells, nephew of the bride groom, was ring bearer.

Mr Bryant was his son's best man. Ushers were Douglas Doss, Jr., brother of the bride Dale Wells, and Charles Jamerson, cousin of the bridegroom.

The bride's mother wore a pink crepe dress topped with lace coat. She wore a matching hat, gloves and shoes and wore a white orchid.

The groom's mother wore a blue lace dress with blue gloves, hat and shoes and she wore a white orchid.

Following the ceremony, the parents of the bride were hosts for a reception in the church fellowship building.

The bride attends Appomattox County High School. The bridegroom is a high school graduate and is presently self-employed.

After a wedding trip, the couple will live in Appomattox.

RECEIVES DIPLOMA

Helen R. Trent received her diploma from Blacksburg High School on Thursday, June 10, 1971. Helen is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Rogers of Appomattox.

Receives Promotion

Miss Charlotte Lawson, 1966 graduate of Appomattox High School and 1970 graduate of the Medical College of Virginia School of Nursing, has recently been promoted to the position of head nurse for the sixth floor of North Hospital at the Medical College of Virginia Hospitals in Richmond. She has been employed for the past year as a registered nurse and, for the past two months, as an assistant head nurse on the seventh floor of this same hospital. Both floors are medical units. Miss Lawson assumed her new responsibilities on June 15.

Golden Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Blackburn of Pamplin were given a surprise party Tuesday evening, June 15 at their home in honor of their fiftieth wedding anniversary. Hostesses were members of Eastern Star Chapter 58. A corsage of yellow roses was presented to Mrs. Blackburn and a boutienier was given to Mr. Blackburn. The honored couple and guests enjoyed a decorated wedding cake and fruit punch. Among the Eastern Star members was a member of the Blackburn's wedding party fifty years ago, Mrs. Kathryn Cunningham. Also on hand was Miss Kay Blackburn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Blackburn and granddaughter of the honored couple.

CRAYON PICTURE IS "OUTSTANDING" BY YOUNG ARTIST

Susan Weatherly, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Mark Weatherly, executed a crayon drawing of the Crucifixion which was displayed at Appomattox County High School during the last few weeks of school. Her homeroom teacher, Mrs. Eddy B. Otey, said she considered the work "outstanding" and that she hopes the many favorable comments heard about the picture will encourage Susan to duplicate the work for a church or Sunday School, possibly, and to continue in her art work which she says shows considerable promise.

Rehearsal Party

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Lewis, parents of the groom, entertained Friday evening at Liberty Baptist Church, with a rehearsal party honoring Miss Barbara Reid and Mr. John Lewis. The couple's marriage was an event of Saturday afternoon at Liberty Baptist Church.

An arrangement of spring flowers and candles decorated the refreshment table. Punch, cake, and mints were served to the members of the bridal party, relatives, and close friends of the honored couple.

MRS. BURREL JOHNSON MAWHINNEY, III
Formerly Miss Elizabeth McCain James

Wed In Evening Ceremony

The marriage of Miss Elizabeth McCain James (Betsy), daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Fleetwood James, Jr. of Tallahassee, Florida to Burrel Johnson Mawhinney, III, son of Mr. and Mrs. Burrel Johnson Mawhinney, also of Tallahassee, took place at six o'clock p.m. on Friday, June 18 at Saint John's Episcopal Church, Tallahassee.

The bride is the granddaughter of Mrs. Charles F. James, Sr., formerly of Appomattox and the late Dr. Charles F. James, Sr.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in her traditional wedding gown of ivory peau de soie. The fitted bodice of re-embroidered Alencon lace and seed pearls featured a portrait neckline and full length sleeves that ended in a point at the wrist.

The peau de soie bell skirt was enhanced with Alencon lace and seed pearl motifs. For back interest, panels of lace extended down to the end of the full sweeping cathedral train. Her silk illusion veil fell from a Juliet cap of re-embroidered Alencon lace, accented with seed pearls, to a full cathedral train.

The bride carried a cascade of white cattleya orchids, white butterfly roses and stephanotis. An imported linen and lace handkerchief, a gift of the groom's parents, formed the background for the central orchids. Streamers of white satin ribbon and lace completed the bouquet.

She wore an heirloom diamond and emerald brooch belonging to her paternal grandmother, which had been a gift to her great-grandmother upon her graduation from Judson College, Marion, Alabama in 1865.

Miss Carolyn James, sister of the bride was maid-of-honor. Other attendants were Miss Barbara Scott James, Amandale, Va. and sister of the bride; Miss Dianne Hartsfield, Maitland, Fla., cousin of the bride; Mrs. Dennis H. James, Doraville, Ga., sister-in-law of the bride; Mrs. Robert Barr (Linda say Amiss), College Park, Ga; Miss Elda Lott, Tallahassee, Fla., Miss Gayle Green, Tallahassee, Fla.; Miss Jacque Touchton, Tampa, Fla.; and Miss Barrett Coe, Birmingham, Ala.

The blue chiffon floor length dresses of the attendants featured an Empire bodice, high neckline and long puff sleeves, each banded in white Irish linen lace. Their picture hats were of white horsehair braid banded with fresh daisies and ribbon to match their dresses. They carried white baskets filled with daisies.

Mr. Burrel J. Mawhinney was his son's best man.

Groomsmen were Charles Fleetwood James, III and Dennis Hamilton James, brothers of the bride, of Atlanta, Ga. Also Paul Bigham, Jeff Pomeroy, Stanley Walker, Cliff Chavez, all of Tallahassee.

After a wedding trip to Florida, the couple will live in Tallahassee, Fla.

Wed In Afternoon Ceremony

The marriage of Miss Barbara Ann Reid, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David C. Reid, to John C. Lewis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Lewis, took place Saturday afternoon, June 19th, at four o'clock in Liberty Baptist Church, Appomattox, Virginia.

The Rev. Thomas D. Lea, pastor of the church, officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length wedding gown with Irish lace in the bodice and the bell sleeves and bows accenting the waist. Her veil of illusion fell from a cluster of pearls outlined by seeded pearls.

She carried a Bible topped with a white orchid and covered with green and white star burst pom pom mums.

Linda Rogers of Appomattox, maid of honor, wore a floor length yellow linen dress with empire waist. She carried a bouquet of green spider mums.

Bridal attendants were Miss Judy Reid, sister of the bride, and Mrs. Robert B. Hicks, III, sister of the groom, both of Appomattox. They wore floor length dresses identical to the maid of honor's and carried bouquets of daisies and yellow spider mums.

Ushers were Robert B. Hicks, III, Livingston, Ala.; William C. Watt, and Jerry Hartsfield, Tallahassee, Fla., cousins of the bride; Jeffrey Stephens, Griffen, Ga., cousin of the groom; Carlyle Carrington, Tallahassee, Fla. Cross Bearer was Al Stewart.

Flower girls were Miss Lena Reid, cousin of the bride, and Miss Lisa Coatney, daughter of the bride and Dianne Coatney of Marietta, Ga.

The flower girls wore dresses identical to the bridesmaids' and wore daisy garlands in their hair and carried baskets of daisies from which they tossed petals.

Ringbearer was Billy Wayne Willis, Tallahassee, Fla.

Immediately following the ceremony, Dr. and Mrs. Reid entertained with a reception in the Capital City Country Club, Tallahassee.

After a wedding trip to Natural Florida, the couple will live in Ft. Lauderdale, Fla. at 2400 S.E. 5th Court, Riverside Apartments, Apt. 6. The bridegroom is employed by James S. Hunt, Jr., Fort Lauderdale, Fla.
